APACHE TRAIL TOUR

The Apache Trail is a true wilderness adventure and a perfect day in the Sonoran desert. Guests will be picked up via a touring van that will take them to Arizona's first designated "Historic Highway" and a scenic byway.

This breathtaking road got its start as an Indian route and became the supply route for one of the first reclamation projects in the U.S.

Guests will need to hold onto their hats for an unforgettable view of the Superstition Mountain Wilderness. The winding road will take the group past Canyon Lake to the colorful Tortilla Flat where guests will have time to walk through the shops. On the way back to town, guests will stop at the ghost town of Goldfield where guests will get picture perfect glimpses into Arizona's rambunctious past.

Start Time: 8:00 AM

Duration: 6 hours

Cost: $104.00 plus tax (8.95%) for a total of $113.30 per person , based on a minimum of 8 guests

Inclusions: Round trip transportation; Tour Guide
